TENNESSEE TEMPLE COLLEGE

A DISTINCTIVE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL
CHATTANOOGA, TENN.

Larry-
It has been great knowing you. We sure have had a lot of talks but I still seem mixed up in some things yet. Old habits are so hard to drop off at times. Have fun this summer and may God bless you. Your a great kid and keep living for Him always. You have helped me out a lot spiritually. Just do one thing - next year sell your cereal cheaper - your prices are way too high! Pray for me, cause when I go home the Devil is really going to be tempting me through my old friends. Hope to see you next year in the Temple Hotel. Easy on the girls now.

In Christ Gal. 2:20

Larry, tell Jimmy I said hi!

Be good.

Dear Larry,
God surely did know what he was doing when He brought me to T.T. and exposed me to people like you. You certainly did make Chapel enjoyable this year. "No
I won't marry you!" I'm sorry. However I think you are the sweetest person I know with no exceptions. Larry, Thank you for your friendship this year and I'm looking forward to seeing you again next semester. Oh I almost forgot. You're coming to Miami this summer so I can show you around. Better be good and keep singing for the Lord. May God richly bless you as you seek to serve Him.

Much Love in Christ

Without the fundamental

there would be no

Without the education

Confession of Faith

We believe in the verbal inspiration and authority of the Scriptures. We believe that the Bible reveals God, the fall of man, the way of salvation, and God's plan and purpose in the ages. We believe in God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. We believe in the Deity and virgin birth of Jesus Christ. We believe that salvation is "by grace" plus nothing and minus nothing. The conditions to salvation are repentance and faith. We believe that men are justified by faith alone and are accounted righteous before God only through the merit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. We believe in the everlasting conscious blessedness of the saved and the everlasting conscious punishment of the lost.

Dedication

Donella Cochran Brown made her first public appearance very early. She travelled with her parents, her father having a vital part in the ministries of several evangelists. Donella was provided a solid musical foundation by her mother, herself a musician. She attended school at home in Winona Lake, Indiana, Bob Jones College, and The University of Chattanooga, receiving the Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees.

The first year of her marriage to Dr. Fred Brown was spent in the British Isles, where she assisted him musically in evangelism. A daughter, Regina Ellen, was born and they continued their travels until she started school.

Mrs. Brown came to Temple in 1950. In the past, she has directed the band and the chorus. She presently teaches voice and organ, directs the A Capella and church choirs, and serves as a church pianist.

One senses perfectionism in all she undertakes, and her work takes on the beautiful and refined tones of the Classics. These qualities are evident also in her daily life as she gives herself to the service of Christ and others.

Mrs. Brown, for your very evident dedication to God, Temple, and the individual student, we dedicate this annual to you with our love.

To Larry -
With happy memories of our times together - in lessons and in choir -
May God's richest blessings be yours always -
Sincerely
Donella Brown
Prov. 3:6

SYMPHONY

As nineteen sixty-five has crescendoed, one can see
And hear the glorious music of the Father's symphony.
This music swells its beauty to the farthest missionfield—
Yet beats within the trusting heart, by Holy Spirit sealed.

The strains are filled with harmony, melodious and sweet
The Temple smiles and friendliness are the accents on the beat.
The unity of purpose is perhaps the concert key
Which guides away from discord in the Temple family.

The vivaciousness in rhythm keeps the school going in a pace
There is no room for the quitter, no rest in this music's race;
For the symphony must be finished with the Director's last down beat Till the sound of that blessed trumpet interrupts the patting feet.

Yet, abruptly stops the lilting strain of the 1965 year
And a minor refrain is sounded in the Father's knowing ear
Yet still the baton is guided by the Director's mighty hand
Each little note of sorrow surely by Him ever planned.

Then climbs the music even more majestic than before
Each player in the symphony must fully learn the score.
More knowledge in the things which make the melody ring clear—
The melody: redemption, for all to plainly hear.

OUR KEY

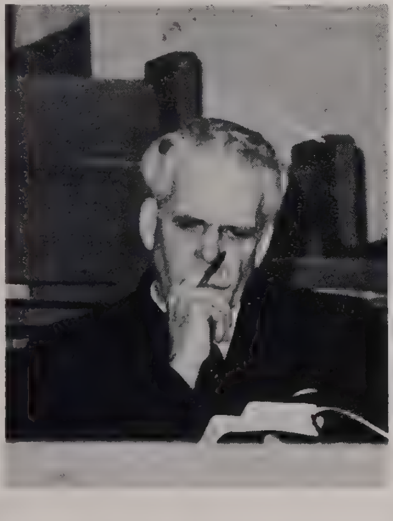
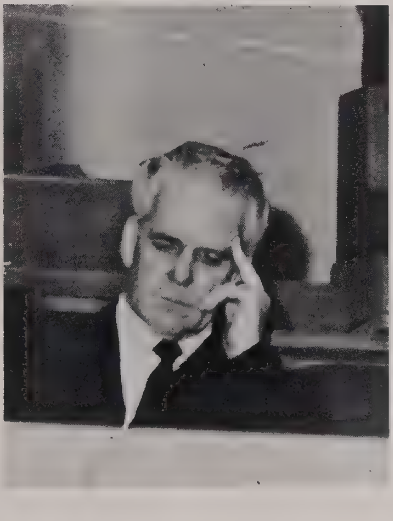
"Be steady, young man! This world has no room for quitters." Thus another struggling student, seeing in Dr. Roberson the quality which has made him a leader, determines to try again. It was because of persistency, determination, and much prayer that Dr. Roberson was led to establish Tennessee Temple Schools in 1946. However, it is patience, understanding, and wisdom on his part which keeps faculty, administration, and student body harmoniously working together.

Through his example he inspires us all to fulfill our personal responsibilities and desires that his life, as ours, be dictated by the Bible, God's inspired Word and our revered Guide.





OUR V.P., J.R.F., MAINTAINS

Steve, Bobby, Randy, Paul, Peter, Dr. and Mrs. Faulkner.

A FIRM HOLD ON CAMPUS POLICY.

Our Vice-President, J. R. Faulkner is the personification of ingenuity and ambition. One would think he must have an enormous filing system to contain the wealth of ideas which seems always so close at hand whenever they are needed. Surprisingly enough each challenge is met with a refreshingly original idea straight from his well-disciplined mind. Each task is completed smoothly and efficiently, seemingly without any effort; however, we can only imagine the long hours spent in each particular job.

Never so busy that he does not show interest in each individual, his ever-winning smile and hearty "hello" always lifts our spirits. From our "Fireside Chats" on Sunday evenings we have gained so much, that we have had to build a special compartment within our hearts to store the blessings.

The Tennessee Temple Crusaders terminated the 1964-1965 season with a respectable 9-11 record. Averaging almost ten points better than their opponents and having four starters with averages in double figures, the Crusaders had a very fine year under the athletic and spiritual leadership of Coach Bruce Foster.

With the granting of athletic scholarships for the 1965-1966 season, the future of basketball looks even brighter—the opportunities for more effective witnessing by the team even greater.

An outstanding musical group of Tennessee Temple, the A Cappella Choir, is probably one of the greatest single tributes to our school with its magnificent arrangements and widespread influence. STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

The officers of this year's student body have exerted a united effort to further student participation in its project "Operation 50." The purpose of this project was to raise funds for a much-needed building which would house a book store, snack shop, barber shop, and student lounge. Plans are being made for this building to be in use the fall semester of '65.

WE REMEMBER

DR. ROBERT B. BURNETTE

Beloved Dean of Tennessee Temple Bible School

"Remember them . . . who have spoken unto you the Word of God: whose faith follow . . ." (Hebrews 13:7)

GOD'S SERVANT

"He preached the Word in season and out."
He loved the Lord
with all his heart!
He sought the lost
to win their souls.
He served mankind
through many toils.
He taught the truth
unmixed with error.
He fought God's foes
in faith, not fear.
He planned his work
to please his God.
He worked God's plans
to hear 'Well done!'
He finished the course
God gave him to do.
He rests in Christ.
His faith was true.
He's met the Christ
he served so well.
He knew with Him
He'd always dwell.
He kept the faith.
He fought the fight.
He conquered the course.
His crown is the Light."

"A BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE"

Malachi 3:16, 17

"A Book of Remembrance" has Jesus, my Lord.
The record therein gives my heart sweet accord.
For "they shall be Mine, saith the Lord of Hosts,"
"When I make up My jewels" from out all the coasts.
So we must go on—win souls for Christ,
That they might have the life that lasts,
And in His book He'll write their name;
They will be His in that glad day.

Dr. Robert B. Burnette

Larry,
To a really great guy who has really been swell to me this year. Remember all the great times and the laughs in the Soph. play — and all the ice cream at the party.
Thanks for being a true friend and a sweet Christian testimony. May God's richest blessing be on you as you continue to serve and live for Him.
Love ya!
Sharon
Deut. 31:8

Larry, Well, it's almost time for the commencement program — and for us, it is the commencement of our summer work. It's been a great year — and it's fun getting to know you better, singing with you in choir & for the Lord at the Rally.
You're great and you're going to go places for the Lord.
See you in September —
Connie Paulter
Phil. 4:19

Larry, We've somehow managed through two full years of college.
I'm glad that we've been able to share in various activities — especially choir. You have a very pleasant personality — so easy-going. Wouldn't hurt me to learn a few lessons from you! May the Lord bless you this summer — Sincerely,
Is. 58:11 Sandy
Gal. 6:14

Larry-
Another year has gone
by with many unusual things happening like your roommates departure and remember it your turn next year, so you had better be looking around at the prospects! We have had a good year and I'm looking for a better one next year.

Sincerely
Bob Stanfield

Larry,

Well, you told me I could use a whole page, so I will do my best.

First of all -- I like you alot, even if you sing much better than me. Jesus loves you evermore also.

Second -- you have a very sweet brother -- His name is Jimmy -- Oh yes, you're sweet too.

Third -- you dress very nicely, and you are a neat young man.

Fourth -- I sure hope I see you next year. That would be sweet.

Fifth -- well, I can't think of anything to say here.

Sixth -- you're the pretty one everytime.

Seventh -- my mosquito died -- He eated too many jars of peanut butter.

Eight -- The reason my mosquito died is because he eated too many prunes.

Nine -- I pray that Jesus will always love you -- I know He will 10- May the Lord be your guide -- May you always be caught in a shower of happiness without an umbrella.

Phil 4:19

Dear Larry,

Everyday the Lord blesses me in many ways. I'm thankful that He has permitted us to become friends within the last month (or so?). I'm very sorry that you were not able to go to the "T.V." party but maybe some other time. Don't forget Julius' speech on the tooth paste. You look cute with it smeared from head to toe. I'm looking forward to next year and seeing you again. Until then, keep singing and looking to the Lord for guidance.

In Him,
Beverly Gray
Psa. 62:7

P.S. I could have said much more but
I ran out of space!

Larry,

Another year has past and you still haven't married that organist. I guess you're just naturally slow. Well maybe you can find somebody else. We've has a blast this year. I'm looking forward to another good year. Your testimony has meant a lot to me. You will be used greatly of the Lord. I hope to see you this summer. Well, as you have noticed I have just been rattling out of the top of my head. I can't think of anything to say so I'll just say behave yourself... especially if you go to White Lake.

In Him
Julius, Ace, Pooch,
Triad, Old Crow,
Stupid, Ugly,
Fat-so.
Rom. 8:31

P.S. Next year I'll try to protect your lunch.

Larry!

This has been a good year. I've enjoyed being around you in choir - What time I've been there! I've enjoyed knowing you. May God bless you. Keep singing for the Lord -

In Him,
Sue Larson
